About Us

Founded in 2025, Axiscore Consulting is a premier financial and management consulting firm headquartered in Nigeria. We specialize in corporate finance, governance advisory, business strategy, and operational excellence.

Our foundation is built on deep industry experience, globally recognized certifications, and a track record of delivering value-driven solutions. Since inception, we have worked with clients across the financial, energy, and SME sectors, helping them improve performance, manage risk, and achieve strategic growth.

As we evolve, Axiscore continues to expand its offerings to include digital transformation, executive coaching, and workforce training, ensuring our clients remain competitive in today's dynamic business environment.

Mission:

To empower businesses with actionable financial insights, robust governance frameworks, and strategic roadmaps that drive sustainable growth.

Vision:

To be Africa's leading trusted partner for financial, management, and governance consulting services.

Our Identity

Legal Status

Axiscore Consulting is a premium financial and management consulting firm headquartered in Nigeria. Established to bridge critical gaps in Africa's consulting landscape, the firm provides tailored advisory services in finance, corporate governance, business strategy, and operational excellence.

The company is formally registered as a Private Company in Nigeria under the name Axiscore Consulting. It is led by Managing Partner Babatunde Olubunmi Adeoti, a seasoned professional with global certifications including ACCA, FIMC, and CMC.

Core Competencies

Axiscore Consulting leverages deep industry experience and globally recognized best practices to deliver results-oriented solutions to its clients. With a strong foundation in banking, finance, and consulting, the firm is uniquely positioned to address complex business challenges.

Our core strengths include:

- Proven expertise in finance, strategy, and corporate governance
- Certified methodologies aligned with international standards
- Customizable tools, templates, and advisory frameworks
- Strong commitment to ethics, confidentiality, and client success.

Our Services

Financial Advisory

At Axiscore Consulting, we deliver comprehensive financial advisory services designed to help organizations enhance performance and achieve sustainable growth. Our services include financial planning, cash flow forecasting, budgeting, financial modeling, and business restructuring.

We support a wide range of clients including financial institutions, SMEs, corporates, government agencies, and nonprofits. Our team combines deep industry knowledge with certified expertise to deliver tailored solutions that address unique financial challenges.

We have helped clients reduce operating costs by up to 15%, improve budgeting accuracy, and secure investment through strategic financial modeling. We work in partnership with investment experts, tax consultants, and regulatory professionals to ensure compliance, optimize capital structure, and improve decision-making. Backed by robust analytical tools and proven methodologies, we help our clients create long-term value, manage financial risk, and strengthen fiscal responsibility.

Our Services

Corporate Governance Consulting

At Axiscore Consulting, we provide specialized governance consulting services that help organizations strengthen leadership, accountability, and compliance. Our offerings include board evaluations, governance framework design, policy development, and regulatory compliance audits.

We work with corporate boards, public institutions, NGOs, and private organizations to enhance transparency, clarify roles and responsibilities, and align governance structures with strategic goals. Our consultants bring experience in both local and international governance standards, ensuring best practices are embedded across all levels of leadership.

Our interventions have led to measurable improvements such as enhanced board performance, streamlined reporting, and stronger compliance posture. Using structured assessments, guided workshops, and tailored governance models, we help clients mitigate risks, improve oversight, and build resilient leadership systems that adapt to changing regulatory and operational demands.

Our Services

Business Strategy

At Axiscore Consulting, we offer strategic advisory services that guide organizations in achieving competitive advantage and long-term success. Our focus areas include market entry strategy, business growth planning, performance improvement, and operational excellence.

We support startups, SMEs, and large enterprises in navigating complex markets, identifying growth opportunities, and optimizing internal processes. Our approach blends industry insight with data-driven analysis to deliver strategies that are both practical and scalable.

With deep experience across diverse sectors, our consultants work closely with clients to define clear objectives, align operations with business goals, and execute strategies that deliver measurable impact. We help businesses move from vision to action with clarity, speed, and confidence.

Our Services

Training & Capacity Building

At Axiscore Consulting, we deliver tailored training programs and capacity-building initiatives designed to enhance the skills and performance of finance teams, executives, and board members. Our workshops are practical, industry-relevant, and aligned with global best practices.

We design and facilitate learning sessions focused on financial management, governance responsibilities, strategic leadership, and regulatory compliance. Each program is customized to meet the specific needs of the organization and participants, ensuring immediate applicability and long-term value.

With experienced facilitators and interactive delivery methods, our training solutions empower professionals to make informed decisions, lead effectively, and contribute meaningfully to organizational goals. We serve clients across the private, public, and nonprofit sectors.

Our Services

SME Consulting

At Axiscore Consulting, we provide tailored consulting services to support small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) in building resilient, investor-ready businesses. Our services include business plan development, investment readiness assessment, and access-to-funding support through pitch deck creation and targeted investor outreach.

We work closely with entrepreneurs and SME leadership teams to strengthen their business models, improve financial visibility, and position them for sustainable growth. Whether preparing for a funding round or scaling operations, we deliver practical guidance every step of the way.

Leveraging market insights, financial expertise, and a growing network of capital partners, we help SMEs overcome structural barriers, engage potential investors, and build the internal capacity needed to thrive in competitive business environments.
